

a very social bank

“As a simple objective ... profits in excess of those required for reasonable return on shareholders ... capital and for prudent reserves would be devoted to purposes relating to the higher interests of the community”

Unity Trust Bank founding quote 1984

